Introductory

This, our second edition of the Glendale Directory, shows in minute detail the wonderful growth of this truly phenomenal city.

The alphabetical section contains 14,070 names of persons over the age of eighteen years, which does not include that of the wife's, which is shown on the same line as that of the husband.

In estimating the population, directory publishers throughout the country use the conservative multiple of 2¼, which allows for the wife and children under eighteen years of age. This shows the population to be 31,657.

The first part of the directory, The Householders Guide, lists all houses and stores in numerical rotation and also alphabetically as to streets. This section contains the number of houses in the city and shows an increase over last year of nearly two thousand dwellings and stores.

The Classified Section, the third division of the Directory, is a complete catalogue of the city's professions and businesses, and shows the buying public where it can be obtained, and says in plain black type, "Buy it in Glendale."

A special Miscellaneous Department, which comprises the Churches, Fraternal Organizations, Schools, City Government, etc., will be found beginning with page 108.

Yours very truly,

Western Directory Co.
